

ABORIGINAL FAMILY'S HOPES DASHED AS "DREAM HOME" SOLD

An aboriginal family (TOP), now living in a one-room shanty (ABOVE, RIGHT), near Nambucca Heads, has lost the chance to live in a four-room house (ABOVE) at nearby Newville. The house, which the family had dreamed of living in for the last two years, was sold on Tuesday to one of 26 signatories to a petition protesting against its proposed sale to accommodate an aboriginal family. The family is Mr and Mrs Edric Davis and their three children (left to right) Carmel, 3, Angeline, 6, and Christene, 1.

SMH 21 Aug 1958