

Charges dismissed

CANBERRA, Tuesday.
— A former member of the Aboriginal "embassy" ~~opposite Parliament House~~ was discharged in Canberra Court of Petty Sessions today on three charges relating to the removal of the "embassy" last July.

Mr Ambrose Golden-Brown, 33, truck driver, of Wreck Bay, near Nowra, was discharged on charges of having hindered a policeman in the execution of his duty on July 20, assaulting a policeman on July 23, and using indecent words on the same day. Police offered no evidence today.